

GLAD Strategies

Focus and Motivation Strategies

Vocabulary	Inquiry Chart	Teacher-made Big Books	Picture File Cards/ Observation Charts	Other
See GLAD Idea pages	What do you know about weather? What do you wonder about weather?	The Important Book of Weather		Meteorologist Award

Input Strategies

Pictorials	Comparative(s)	Narrative(s)	Graphic Organizers	Other
Water cycle Changing states of matter Thermometer –highs and lows	Types of clouds Types of Wind Types of Precipitation	“Frog and Toad Through the Seasons” “Around the World Using Weather”	Cycle of seasons

Guided Oral Practice Strategies

T-Graph For Social Skills	Chants	Sentence Patterning Charts (SPC)	SPC Extensions (trading game, poetry frames, etc.)	Other
Cooperation	"I Can Spell" "Water Cycle Rap" "Water Cycle Song" "Weather Bugaloo" "Weather Here, There" "Weather Sound-Off"	* meteorologists * clouds * people

Reading and Writing Strategies

Process Grid

Elements of Weather	Description	Types	Tools	Interesting Fact
Temperature
Wind
Cloud cover
Precipitation

Expert Groups	Co-op/Group Frames	Team Tasks	Individual Tasks	Other
Temperature Wind Cloud cover Precipitation	Weather is a good example of matter and the ways that matter changes.

--	--	--	--	--